First, log in using your eID and password (same eID & password you used to create your online application) at MyUofC.

Once on your Student Centre, click the “Status” button at the bottom of the page under “My Applications”.
Note: If the online application fee has not been paid, you won’t be able to check the status of your application. Information on how to pay application fees can be found here.
If you have paid your fee, you will be directed to a page that shows the status of your application.
