

Now what?

The complete on-campus guide for residents

“ I made a group of friends that I know I will have forever, and that really helped make my transition into university and living away from home a lot easier. ”

— EMMA BARSCHEL, Nursing, first-year

“ I was able to grow so much in a way I wouldn't have if I lived on my own. ”

— BETHANY WHITTAL, Community Advisor

“ I definitely recommend living on campus, because of the convenience and accessibility of everything. Some of my best university experiences are in residence and it has had a role in shaping who I am. ”

— BLAKE LEDGER, Community Advisor

Welcome to Residence and the University of Calgary

We are excited that you decided to spend your first year in residence at the University of Calgary and would like to make your transition to your new home as smooth and stress-free as possible. You may be wondering, “Okay, here I am...now what”?

In this booklet you will find information on the “now what,” from where to eat on campus, where to buy books and supplies, making payments and class schedules to information on the fitness facilities, how to get involved on campus and residence life, accessing academic and personal support programs and resources, connecting to Internet, important dates that you don't want to miss and a lot of the in between.

We want to encourage you to get involved in the campus and residence community, and that you take the opportunity to fully immerse yourself in all that the University of Calgary and Residence Services has to offer. This is your time — you are in the heart of it all, you are connected, you can make lasting memories and life-long friendships; your experience is what you make of it and we are here to help you make it amazing.

Places To Eat On Campus?

Whether you want breakfast, lunch, dinner or a coffee to go or a snack on the run? There are food retailers across campus offering a variety of choices for whatever it is you're craving.

Your meal plan provides access to The Landing, the all you care to eat facility located on the upper level of the Dining Centre

LIVING IN RESIDENCE

Wellness in Residence

The Wellness in Residence (WIR) program supports students mental and emotional well-being through a partnership with Student Wellness Services. The program aims to increase knowledge and awareness about mental health and improve access to mental health services and supports.

The program is available to you no matter what building you live in. The WIR team consists of Wellness Community Ambassadors, student support advisors, counsellors and health promotion staff.

For more information, visit ucalgary.ca/ancillary/residence/current-residents/services/wellness-residence

The Campus Community Hub

The Campus Community Hub is dedicated to providing students with wellness information and resources, events, workshops, and training.

This year, programs and engagement activities will be held online and staffed by 'hub hosts', who are student volunteers who can answer your questions about wellness resources on campus, and chat with you about student life.

The Hub aims to create connections and partnerships between the university and community partners, and community agencies.

Residence Appeal Board

The Residence Appeal Board is a judicial body that hears residence judicial/discipline cases that have reached the highest level of sanction to which a resident has requested an appeal based on appropriate criteria.

The purpose and charge of the board is to uphold community standards and maintain them as a just and equitable system. All members of the board receive special judicial training and are held to the highest standard of confidentiality and receive recognition on their Co-Curricular Record for their participation and involvement.

Residence Athletic Association (RAA)

The Residence Athletic Association is a student-run group in residence that runs a variety of weekly events focused on health and wellness. RAA hosts free events like volleyball, yoga, bouldering, squash, and fitness boot camp (for a small charge), a different event every weeknight.

RAA also organizes sports intramural sign up within residence. Coming out to RAA events is a great way to get to know other students in your residence community and to prioritize your health and wellness throughout the school year. If you are passionate about promoting health and wellness, you can also get involved in hosting these events with RAA as a building representative!

Information about the Community Ambassador role, how (and when) to contact the CAs

In your building you will find a Community Ambassador living in your community. The CA is a student leader in the residence community, and is a friendly support to students living in the residences; they are an excellent source of information and can provide resources for most questions you may have.

CAs organize ongoing events that bring the community together and provide a great way for students to get to know each other as well as their campus community. CAs also take turns being “On Call” in the residence buildings, and they work to ensure the safety and well-being of the students living in residence.

You will likely see the CAs walking through the buildings wearing vests. The CAs On Call are a resource for you to call after hours (when the Campus Service Centre is closed) if for instance you have been locked out of your room, you have a noise complaint, or a safety concern.

CA On Call numbers and other emergency resources can be found by visiting, ucalgary.ca/ancillary/residence/contact-us/emergency-contact

Tips for living with roommates

- Communicate, communicate, communicate! Most roommate disagreements and issues (whether it be regarding cleanliness, guests, sleep schedules, or study habits) can be remedied by talking. Don't be afraid to bring things up nicely if there are concerns.
- Fill out a roommate agreement (your Community Ambassador has them) within the first week of moving in. These can be really helpful in opening up dialogue about living habits.
- Your roommate doesn't have to be your best friend, and that's okay.
- Respect your roommate's personal items.
- Be open to new things. Try to get to know your roommate by asking questions. Differences between you and your roommate can make for fun, new experiences.
- Have fun!

Residence Wi-Fi

AirUC is your main Wi-Fi connection to the Internet while you are living in residence.

How to log in:

Find AirUC-Residence in your wireless network - sign in using your UCalgary IT account (same username and password used to log into my.ucalgary.ca).

For more information on other Wi-Fi networks available or if you are having issues connecting to the network, please visit ucalgary.ca/ancillary/residence/current-residents/services/internet

Housekeeping Services

Our professional housekeeping staff cleans all common areas in Residence buildings on campus. The areas include community bathrooms on every floor twice a day, and community lounges on every floor once per day. You can check with your CA on how to access a vacuum cleaner to keep your personal apartments/rooms clean. Keep an eye out for Housekeeping initiatives, training sessions and contests throughout the year.

For more information on how to keep rooms clean throughout the year, visit UCalgary Cleaning Tips

We are excited to welcome students back to a well-maintained Residence Community.

Safewalk program

The Safewalk program is a student-run volunteer service designed to promote campus safety and awareness. By accessing this 24/7 service, you are able to safely walk with peers to any campus destination. For more information on Safewalk and campus security, visit ucalgary.ca/security

Picking up parcels

The Campus Service Centre will notify you by email when you have a parcel or letter mail to pick up.

Once you receive your email to pick up your parcel or letter mail, you can head to the Campus Service Centre located in International House.

Tip: Make sure to bring your Unicard or other government issued photo ID to pick up your parcel or letter mail.

Amazon Lockers

You can skip the Campus Mail Centre by having your Amazon packages delivered directly to Amazon lockers. The lockers (Gitta) are located in the lower level of the Dining Centre.
