THE GOVERNORS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY ("UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY") AND THE RESIDENT AGREE THAT:

Definitions
1) In this Agreement,
   (a) "Business Day" means any day, excluding Saturday, Sunday, days listed as holidays in the University of Calgary Calendar, and any other days determined by Residence Services;
   (b) "Assigned Unit/Room" means the room and/or residence unit in the University of Calgary Residence Complex assigned by the University of Calgary to the Resident;
   (c) "Residence Complex" includes Aurora, Crownest, Cascade, Glacier, Global Village, Kananaskis, Olympus, Rundle, and Yamnuska Halls; the Dining Centre; all connecting tunnels; all building entrances and the courtyards; and Varsity Courts;
   (d) "Resident" shall be a registered student of the University of Calgary who holds a current Residence Services Agreement.

License Agreement
2) This Agreement is a license to occupy and does not give the Resident any rights of tenancy in the Assigned Unit/Room.

Limitations of Liability
3) The University of Calgary assumes no responsibility or liability for losses or damages to personal property.

Representations of the Resident
4) The Resident shall be enrolled as a student at the University of Calgary for the entire duration of the occupancy period.

Covenants of the Resident
5) The Resident shall comply with the University of Calgary Residence Community Standards posted on the University of Calgary Residence Services website, as modified from time to time. The Resident acknowledges and agrees that:
   (a) The Residence Community Standards is a legally binding appendix to this Agreement and includes procedures and sanctions to address breaches of Residence Services Agreements;
   (b) the Resident has read the Residence Community Standards and shall comply with all policies and community standards as outlined therein;
   (c) Failure of the Resident to read the Residence Community Standards shall not excuse the Resident from compliance.

Termination of the Agreement by the University of Calgary
6) The University of Calgary may terminate this Agreement by giving the Resident 48 hours’ notice if the Resident:
   (a) ceases to be a student at the University of Calgary;
   (b) fails to make any payment owing under this Agreement by the date on which payment falls due; or
   (c) is found in violation of the University of Calgary non-academic misconduct policies and a resulting sanction is removal from residence.
7) Notwithstanding paragraph 6, the University of Calgary may terminate this Agreement as outlined in the Residence Community Standards which shall result in the following:
   (a) the Resident must vacate their Assigned Unit/Room and return his/her key within 24 hours;
   (b) the Resident shall be banned throughout the University of Calgary Residence including the Dining Centre for one year; and
   (c) The Resident shall be responsible for payment of the remaining balance of their term residence fees owed to the University of Calgary regardless of the date of termination.

Termination of the Agreement by the Resident
8) The Resident may terminate this Agreement upon 5 days written notice where he/she has obtained the consent of the University of Calgary Residence Services to do so. The University of Calgary may, in its sole discretion, consent to termination of the Agreement for:
   (a) Medical reasons, where the Resident has provided a medical certificate from University of Calgary Health Services, the family physician, medical specialist or psychiatrist stating the reasons as to why the Resident ought not to continue residing in the University of Calgary Residence;
   (b) Received co-op, practicum or study abroad placement;
   (c) Voluntary or required withdrawal of registration from the University of Calgary; or
   (d) Complete research/program, or complete graduate program, where the resident has provided proper documentation from the University of Calgary Admissions or faculty.
9) The administration and processing fees upon termination of the Agreement shall be in the amount of $100.00.

Occupancy
10) The University of Calgary shall permit the Resident to occupy the Assigned Unit/Room:
   (a) September 1, 2019 to 24 hours after the Resident’s last 2019 Fall Exam or December 21, 2019, whichever comes first, when a student is staying for the Academic 2019/2020 term;
   (b) September 1, 2019 to 24 hours after the Resident’s last 2020 Winter Exam or May 1, 2020, whichever comes first, when a student is staying for the Academic 2019/2020 term;
   (c) January 1, 2020, to 24 hours after the Resident’s last 2020 Winter Exam or May 1, 2020, whichever comes first, when a student is staying for the Winter 2020 term;
   (d) Starting August 25, 2019 where the tenant has an approved early arrival due to block week, graduate program, field study, international student, or other reasons approved by Residence Services
11) The Resident shall not occupy the Assigned Unit/Room at any other time without the prior authorization of the University of Calgary Residence Services and having paid set fees for the time period authorized.
12) Residency must live in the rooms/suites assigned to them. Unauthorized room transfers are prohibited. Room transfer requests may be submitted to Residence Services, but no Resident should ever assume a request will be approved. The authorization of room transfer requests shall always be at the sole discretion of University of Calgary Residence Services.
13) Keys assigned to a resident must never be shared or loaned. Lost keys must immediately be reported to Residence Services. Lost keys and lookouts are subject to fees. Requests for residence staff to enter their unit on a resident’s behalf may be subject to fees.
14) Any Resident found occupying a Unit/Room without prior authorization of the University of Calgary Residence Services will be held responsible for all damages and fees incurred, as well as other sanctions, up to and including possible eviction.
15) In the event that the Resident has taken occupancy of the Assigned Unit/Room after September 20, 2019, remaining fees are due upon one (1) week after the start date of occupancy.
16) The University of Calgary Residence Services reserves the right to reassign a Resident to an alternate Assigned Unit/Room. The Resident shall move within 24 hours of receiving a reassignment notice.
17) The Resident shall not assign this Agreement or permit any person to occupy the Assigned Unit/Room other than as assigned by the University of Calgary Residence Services.

Residence Services Right of Entry

18) The Resident shall permit the University of Calgary, or its agents, entry for the purpose of inspecting the condition of the Assigned Unit/Room after giving the Resident 24 hours notice of entry via the Resident's primary email address or mailbox, as set out in paragraph 38, or through paper notices posted in the University of Calgary Residence building entrances or other common areas.

19) The Resident shall permit the University of Calgary, or its agents, entry for the purpose of inspecting the condition of the Assigned Unit/Room without notice or consent:
- When a Resident submits a request for maintenance or other facilities services;
- When there is reason to suspect that a window might be left open during cold weather that might cause facility damage such as pipe bursts;
- When there is reason to suspect a threat to a person's health or safety;
- When there is reason to suspect an occurring or potential facilities hazard, for example, pests, water damage or fire safety;
- When there is reason to suspect a violation of this Agreement, the Residence Community Standards, a University policy or an applicable law/bylaw.

Insurance

20) Prior to the Resident taking possession of the Assigned Unit/Room, the Resident shall (i) obtain liability insurance to a minimum limit of one million dollars ($1,000,000.00) to cover any liability arising from their actions in the Assigned Unit/Room or the University of Calgary Residence; and (ii) obtain the requisite insurance for the Resident's personal property. Proof of insurance, to the satisfaction of the University of Calgary must be provided to the University of Calgary by September 1, 2019 if staying for the Academic or Fall terms, or by January 1, 2020 is staying for the Winter term. The Resident must maintain this insurance coverage throughout the period of stay and failure to maintain said insurance may result in the immediate termination of this Agreement. The Resident shall provide proof of valid insurance at any time during the term of this agreement, if so requested by Residence Services. The Resident has the option to sign an authorization form to allow Residence Services to verify the insurance directly with their insurer. Should the Resident cancel their insurance policy anytime during the term of this agreement, they must provide Residence Services with a copy of the new insurance at least 7 days prior to the cancellation of the original insurance. The University of Calgary's failure to request proof of insurance shall not constitute a waiver of the requirement to maintain said insurance. The Resident expressly acknowledges and agrees that the University of Calgary shall not be liable or responsible in any way for any loss or damage to property belonging to, under the control of or in the possession of the Resident or any invitee of the Resident. The Resident waives any and all of their rights of recovery against the University of Calgary with respect to any loss or damage to personal property located on or about the assigned Unit/Room or within the University of Calgary Residence. For greater certainty, this section shall survive the expiration or termination of the Agreement.

Vacant Possession

21) Where this Agreement is terminated, the term of the Agreement has expired, or the Resident's Assigned Unit/Room is reassigned by Residence Services, the Resident shall:
- vacate the Assigned Unit/Room, leaving all of the Assigned Unit/Room's furnishings and fixtures in it completely clean and in good condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted; and
- Deliver the assigned University of Calgary Residence keys and laundry card to Residence Services by 11:00am on the Resident's departure date.

22) Where the Resident does not vacate the Assigned Unit/Room in accordance with this Agreement:
- The University of Calgary or its agents may enter and occupy the Assigned Unit, and
- The Resident shall pay the University of Calgary for any occupation of the Assigned Unit/Room beyond the date vacancy is required by this Agreement.

23) Where the Resident has breached this Agreement, the Resident shall pay to the University of Calgary all costs incurred by the University of Calgary to rectify the breach. Where the Resident has failed to leave the Assigned Unit/Room and its furnishings and fixtures clean and in good condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted, the Resident shall pay to the University of Calgary all costs incurred by the University of Calgary in restoring the Assigned Unit/Room to a clean and habitable condition. Where the Resident or a guest of the Resident has caused damage to any property in the Residence Complex, the Resident shall pay to the University of Calgary all costs incurred by the University of Calgary to repair the damage.

24) Where this Agreement is terminated, the Resident shall pay to the University of Calgary forthwith the administration and processing fees set out in this Agreement and any other amounts owing pursuant to this Agreement.

25) When the Resident owes to the University of Calgary any moneys pursuant to this Agreement, the University of Calgary may place a student on academic withhold, entailing withholding of transcripts of grades, deny changes to registration or registration for future sessions, as well as access to other University services, until the Resident has paid the monies owing.

26) Longstanding amounts due to the University of Calgary may be assigned to a debt collection agency.

Charges

27) All expenses incurred by the University as a result of a resident or their guest(s) not complying with the Agreement are subject to being charged back to that resident, regardless of whether the expenses were incurred deliberately, inadvertently or accidentally. This includes but is not limited to labour, materials and/or administrative expenses associated with confiscation, damage, disposal, fire safety, housekeeping, property loss or storage. Any costs associated with removal and disposal of outside furniture will be charged back to the responsible resident.

28) A list of standard charges can be found on the Residence Services website. All charges not listed will be charged at material costs plus applicable labour rates.

Abandoned Property

29) Property left behind after a resident vacates a room, suite, apartment or townhouse will be stored for 30 days. If it is not claimed by that time, the property will be donated or disposed of, as appropriate. Charges associated with abandoned property, including but not limited to labour costs associated with storage and/or disposal, will be charged to the resident.

Cleanliness and Disposal

30) Residents must maintain all areas of their assigned rooms/suites/townhouses in reasonably clean and sanitary condition, similar to the condition at move-in. Waste (garbage, recycling and compost) must be disposed of properly in a timely fashion. All garbage must be securely wrapped, tied and placed inside a garbage bin. Recyclables must be placed in recycling bins. Waste must not be disposed or stored anywhere other than designated areas. Residents must independently dispose of any item too large for a garbage bin.

Guests

31) Having guests in residence is a privilege. Residents are always responsible for the conduct of any guests or others they allow into the Residence complex. Residents must accompany their guests virtually all of the time. On rare occasions when a resident cannot reasonably accompany a guest (e.g. the guest goes to the washroom), the resident should know the guest's location. Anybody who does not live in a building is a guest in that building. Anybody who is not assigned to a room/suite is a guest in that room/suite. Residents must comply with the following in respect to their guests:
(a) a resident may host a maximum of 4 guests in their Assigned Unit/Room at any time;
(b) a guest is permitted to stay overnight to a maximum of 3 consecutive nights and 9 total nights per semester;
(c) no overnight guest is permitted without the consent of the Resident’s roommate(s);
(d) Residents who violate guest regulations or permit entry to somebody who has been banned may have their guest privileges revoked; and
(e) Residence complex entrances may be monitored with check-in desks and guests may be prohibited during Orientation Week, Bermuda Shorts Day or other occasions requiring greater attention to safety and security.

(b) activity or negligence that harms or has the potential to harm private or university property;
(c) reckless use of water;
(d) borrowing or otherwise relocating private or university property without the expressed consent of the owner. This includes but is not limited to signs, other furnishings, and Dining Centre items.
40) Vandalism is negligence or intentional activity that harms private or university property. It includes but is not limited to breaking furnishings, graffiti and food fights. Vandalism is prohibited.

Pets
41) Residents must immediately report to Residence Services any observation or suspicion of pests, including but not limited to insects or vermin. Residents who fail to do so assume responsibility for all associated expenses. Residents may be required to help prepare for pest treatments by packing and/or cleaning. Residents may be required to leave a room/suite/apartment or townhouse for a minimum of eight hours for pest treatments, for example spraying. Staff may have to enter the room/suite/apartment at these times to monitor treatment progress and/or check for signs of recurrence. A treatment process may be required multiple times to thoroughly address a pest problem.
Storage
42) Residence Services accepts no responsibility for stored items. Residents may not store items anywhere outside rooms/suites/apartments/townhouses other than areas designated for storage. Residents who use designated areas, such as storage closets or lockers, do so at their own risk. Items stored improperly are subject to confiscation and disposal by Residence Services.

Doors and Windows
43) Residents must leave all doors locked whenever they are not at home. Residents will be held responsible for problems such as vandalism that occur inside their residence when a door was left unlocked while the residents were not at home.
44) Residents cannot unfasten or remove window screens or to drop or throw items from windows. Residents cannot enter or exit any building through a window, except during a genuine emergency. Residents cannot publish or display on or in windows anything related to alcohol, drugs or pornography.

Trespassing
45) Residents cannot enter any room, suite, apartment or townhouse without the occupant’s consent, even if the door is unlocked.
46) It is prohibited to enter any vacant room, suite or apartment, including a vacant bedroom within the same unit. Unlocked, vacant rooms should be reported to Residence Services immediately.

82) When the Resident owes to the University of Calgary any moneys pursuant to this Agreement, the University of Calgary may place a student on academic withhold, entailing withholding of transcripts of grades, deny changes to registration or registration for future sessions, as well as access to other University services, until the Resident has paid the moneys owing.

83) Longstanding amounts due to the University of Calgary may be assigned to a debt collection agency.

84) The Resident shall pay to the University of Calgary the amounts agreed to in this Agreement, on the dates set out herein, including:
   (a) a fee for the occupancy of the Room, including a non-refundable Advance Payment;
   (b) an administration fee of $50 where the Resident elects to pay the fees owing to the University outside of the payment dates;
   (c) an administration fee of $50 for improper check-out will be charged whereby the Resident does not vacate the Assigned Unit/Room within the terms of this Agreement;
   (d) an administration fee of $100.00 for every day not checked out will be charged whereby the Resident does not vacate the Assigned Unit/Room within the terms of this Agreement.
   (e) An administration fee of $250 to have items removed from room after three (3) days, if Resident does not vacate the Assigned Unit/Room within the terms of this agreement

Room Fees

85) The Resident shall pay to the University of Calgary the fees as shown below. To make payments easier for residents of Crowsnest Hall, Residence Services has divided the Academic term fees by eight (8) to come up with a monthly payment plan for Crowsnest Residents.

Residents are required to pay the monthly payment plan by the first business day of each month.
