

Read page 2 before filling out this form. Your employer or payer will use this form to determine the amount of your provincial tax deductions.

Fill out this form based on the best estimate of your circumstances.

Last name	First name and initial(s)	Date of birth (YYYY/MM/DD)	Employee number
Address	Postal code	For non-residents only – Country of permanent residence	Social insurance number

1. Basic personal amount – Every person employed in Alberta and every pensioner residing in Alberta can claim this amount. If you will have more than one employer or payer at the same time in 2021, see "More than one employer or payer at the same time" on page 2.

2. Age amount – If you will be 65 or older on December 31, 2021, and your net income from all sources will be $40,179 or less, enter $5,397. If your net income for the year will be between $40,179 and $76,159 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1AB-WS, Worksheet for the 2021 Alberta Personal Tax Credits Return, and fill in the appropriate section.

3. Pension income amount – If you will receive regular pension payments from a pension plan or fund (excluding Canada Pension Plan, Quebec Pension Plan, Old Age Security, or Guaranteed Income Supplement payments), enter $1,491, or your estimated annual pension income, whichever is less.

4. Disability amount – If you will claim the disability amount on your income tax and benefit return by using Form T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate, enter $14,940.

5. Spouse or common-law partner amount – If you are supporting your spouse or common-law partner who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be less than $19,369, enter the difference between $19,369 and their estimated net income. If their net income for the year will be $19,369 or more, you cannot claim this amount.

6. Amount for an eligible dependant – If you do not have a spouse or common-law partner and you support a dependant relative who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be less than $19,369, enter the difference between $19,369 and their estimated net income. If their net income for the year will be $19,369 or more, you cannot claim this amount.

7. Caregiver amount – If you are taking care of a dependant who lives with you, whose net income for the year will be $17,826 or less, and who is either your or your spouse's or common-law partner's:

- parent or grandparent (aged 65 or older)
- relative (aged 18 or older) who is dependant on you because of an infirmity, enter $11,212

If the dependant's net income for the year will be between $17,826 and $29,038 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1AB-WS and fill in the appropriate section.

8. Amount for infirm dependants age 18 or older – If you are supporting an infirm dependant aged 18 or older who is your or your spouse's or common-law partner's relative, who lives in Canada, and whose net income for the year will be $7,407 or less, enter $11,212. You cannot claim an amount for a dependant you claimed on line 7. If the dependant's net income for the year will be between $7,407 and $18,619 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1AB-WS and fill in the appropriate section.

9. Amounts transferred from your spouse or common-law partner – If your spouse or common-law partner will not use all of their age amount, pension income amount, or disability amount on their income tax and benefit return, enter the unused amount.

10. Amounts transferred from a dependant – If your dependant will not use all of their disability amount on their income tax and benefit return, enter the unused amount.

11. TOTAL CLAIM AMOUNT – Add lines 1 to 10.

Your employer or payer will use your claim amount to determine the amount of your provincial tax deductions.

Filling out Form TD1AB

Fill out this form only if you are an employee working in Alberta or a pensioner residing in Alberta and any of the following apply:

- you have a new employer or payer and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, employment insurance benefits, or any other remuneration
- you want to change amounts you previously claimed (for example, the number of your eligible dependants has changed)
- you want to increase the amount of tax deducted at source

Sign and date it, and give it to your employer or payer.

If you do not fill out Form TD1AB, your employer or payer will deduct taxes after allowing the basic personal amount only.

More than one employer or payer at the same time

If you have more than one employer or payer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another Form TD1AB for 2021, you cannot claim them again. If your total income from all sources will be more than the personal tax credits you claimed on another Form TD1AB, check this box, enter "0" on line 11 and do not fill in lines 2 to 10.

Total income less than total claim amount

Check this box if your total income for the year from all employers and payers will be less than your total claim amount on line 11. Your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.

Additional tax to be deducted

If you wish to have more tax deducted, fill in "Additional tax to be deducted" on the federal Form TD1.

Reduction in tax deductions

You can ask to have less tax deducted on your income tax and benefit return if you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, charitable donations, and tuition and education amounts carried forward from the previous year). To make this request, fill out Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office. Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.
