Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to:

1. Define the acceptable use of material protected by copyright;
2. Outline the responsibilities of users of material protected by copyright; and
3. Establish the framework for responsible practice with respect to the use of material protected by copyright.

Scope

This policy applies to Employees, Students, and post-doctoral fellows.

This policy does not apply to material in the Public Domain.

Definitions

In this policy:

- "Employee" means an individual who is in an employer-employee relationship with the University or a person engaged to work for the University under a contract of service (a contractor).
- "Public Domain" means works that belong to the public. Works in the Public Domain can be used free of charge and do not require written permission from the author/creator.
- "Student" means an individual registered in a University course or program of study.
- "University" means the University of Calgary.

Policy Statement

Acceptable Use

Individuals subject to this policy will only use material protected by copyright when:

1. The use is permitted under the Copyright Act;
b) the University has a licence which permits access to specific works pursuant to negotiated contract terms;
c) written permission from the rightsholder has been obtained; or
d) the work is designated as open access through a creative commons license or other similar notice.

Violation

4.2 It is a violation of this policy to use material protected by copyright except as described in 4.1.

4.3 It is also a violation of this policy to instruct, direct, or counsel others to use material protected by copyright except as described in 4.1.

4.4 The University reserves the right to audit compliance with all aspects of this policy.

Sanctions

4.5 Employees and post-doctoral fellows who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be subject to formal disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

4.6 Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

Advice and Information

4.7 Individuals subject to this policy may consult with the University’s Copyright Officer for information on specific uses or for help obtaining permission to use material protected by copyright.

4.8 Copyright training and workshops will be coordinated by the Copyright Officer and delivered by appropriate experts.

4.9 Deans, directors, and department heads will facilitate compliance with this policy and the Copyright Act by:
   a) distributing instructions and updates to individuals in a timely way; and
   b) providing Employees with opportunities to access training and/or training material with respect to copyright.
