4 Policy Statement

General

- 4.1 University Funds may be used for Gifts, Donations, and Sponsorships when the expenses are:
 - a) permitted under this policy;
 - b) properly documented; and
 - c) approved by an Authorized Approver.
- 4.2 Expenses resulting from misinterpretations or mistakes are not a basis for reimbursement. Such situations, however, will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.
- 4.3 The Associate Vice-President (Finance) will establish and maintain procedures for the reimbursement of approved expenses related to Gifts, Donations, and Sponsorships.
- 4.4 Expenses for Gifts, Donations, and Sponsorships will be approved in advance by an Authorized Approver and submitted in accordance with the procedures attached to this policy.
- 4.5 Individuals may not approve their own expense claim even if they are an Authorized Approver.

Gifts

- 4.6 A Gift may be given to an individual, including an Employee, when:
 - a) the reason for giving the Gift supports the mission of the University;
 - b) it is permitted under this policy as well as any terms and conditions of the specific funding source; and
 - c) the expenditure is submitted in accordance with the procedures attached to this policy.
- 4.7 Appropriate reasons for giving a Gift include:
 - a) a token of appreciation for participation in an event;

- b) a token of appreciation for participation in an academic research project;
- c) a non-cash award for winning a competition or contest;
- d) a non-cash prize for attending an event;
- e) expressions of sympathy;
- f) retirement; and
- g) recognition.

4.8 For greater certainty, University Funds may be used to give:

- a) a gift card to a non-employee such as an academic research study participant; and
- b) a Gift for a Retiring Employee subject to the limit set out in the Employee Retirement Policy.

4.9 University Funds may not be used to give:

- a) a Gift of alcohol unless approved by a Senior Executive;
- b) a Gift in hard currency to a non-employee such as an academic research study participant; or
- c) a Gift of cash to an Employee. Note: gift cards, gift certificates and travel vouchers are considered 'near cash' or 'equivalent to cash' and are, therefore, also prohibited.

4.10 When an Employee gives a gift card to a non-employee such as an academic research study participant, the Employee will record the name of the recipient, the reason for the Gift, and the value of the gift card. The Employee will also obtain the signature of the recipient acknowledging receipt of the Gift, if possible.

4.11 A non-cash Gift from the University to an Employee may have tax implications for the Employee. (Please see Canada Revenue Agency's policy on gifts and awards for details or contact the Associate Vice-President (Finance) for information.)

4.12 It is common for Employees to contribute voluntarily toward the purchase of a Gift for a colleague. This policy is not intended to replace or otherwise interfere with this practice.

Donations

4.13 University Funds may not be used for donations to registered not-for-profit charitable organizations unless a Senior Executive approves the donation.

4.14 University Funds may not be used for donations to any other business or organization under any circumstances.

Sponsorships

4.15 The University may sponsor an event when the Sponsorship:

- a) provides a tangible or intangible benefit to the University;
- b) enhances the image of the University as a responsible corporate citizen;
- c) is permitted under the terms and conditions of the funding source; and
- d) is within the budget for such expenditures.

4.16 Sponsorships will be approved in writing by the responsible Senior Executive.

- 4.18 An individual, who has approval to attend a political fund-raising dinner or event for a work-related purpose from an Authorized Approver, may use University Funds only for the cost of the dinner or event.
- 4.19 The request for reimbursement of the expense must be supported by documentation that clearly indicates the actual cost to attend the dinner or event.
- 4.20 University Funds may not be used to make contributions to a registered political party, a registered constituency association, or a registered political candidate.
