

UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSION

Equitable and Inclusive Personal Profile

In addition to the information you included on your application, you must provide the following information to support your Equitable and Inclusive Admission Process application.

If you would like to submit your personal profile in a format other than written you can upload audio files to the profile checklist in your Student Centre. To submit a video file, upload a PDF document that includes a link to your video and access password (if applicable).

The deadline for receipt of the personal profile is March 15.

Personal Information

Please provide a description of your significant accomplishments, high potential in academic/ research activities or how you have displayed perseverance through hardship or systemic barriers. Information on supports that you have in place and how you plan to be successful in academic studies is encouraged. (maximum 3000 characters or approximately 500 words)

Please describe your educational goals, and include a timeframe for accomplishing them.
(maximum 1200 characters or approximately 200 words)

Please discuss your two most significant honours, awards or achievements.
(maximum 1200 characters or approximately 200 words)

Student Statement

The information you are providing on this document is being collected in support of your request for consideration under the Equitable and Inclusive Admission Process. The faculty you apply to will use the information to determine if they may offer you admission under this process. As such, we require you to sign and date the following statement:

I certify that the information I have provided is accurate and complete and prepared by me. I further certify that I understand that this information will be shared with the faculty to which I am applying. I understand that this information is being supplied for the purpose of evaluation for admission under the Equitable and Inclusive Admission Process.

Full Name

UCID

Signature

Date

After you complete this document and are ready to submit it, you must upload it to your MyUCalgary Student Centre (my.ucalgary.ca) by March 15.

For support, please connect with the Recruitment and Admissions team.

See our website for more details about the Equitable and Inclusive process.