
Itinerary

Pre-Departure
TBD, Calgary: Mandatory pre-departure orientation
January, Calgary: First group meeting and BBC documentary viewing (exact date TBD)
February, Calgary: Second group meeting, introduction to program themes and pre-readings provided (exact date TBD)
March, Calgary: Third group meeting half hour lecture and pre-program Q & A (exact date TBD)
April, Calgary: Fourth course meeting (exact date TBD)
May 1, Calgary: D2L short answer/essay tests due for RELS 349 and RELS 389

In Field
May 6, Calgary: Depart Calgary for Madrid
May 7, Madrid - Salamanca: Arrival in Madrid and bus trip to Salamanca. Getting settled at Colegio Arzobispo Fonseca, walking tour from Colegio to the Plaza Mayor of Salamanca, day ends with dinner at the Casón Cervantes.
May 8, Salamanca: Class in the colegio on Lazarillo de Tormes and walking tour of old city and the University of Salamanca.
May 9, Salamanca; La Alberca; Béjar; Hervás: Day trip to La Alberca’s Casa Museo Satur Juanela, Béjar’s Museo Judío, and then finishing with a walk through Jewish quarter in Hervás.
May 10-11, Salamanca: Independent study time and class in the colegio.
May 12, Salamanca; Valladolid: Day trip to Valladolid with visits to the Museo Nacional de Escultura and a walking tour in the old city.
May 13, Salamanca: Independent study time and class in the colegio.
May 14, Salamanca; Ávila: Day trip to Ávila with a visit to the Sefarad Garden; a guided tour of the old city that will feature the cathedral, its walls, Iglesia de Santa Teresa, Basilica de San Vicente; a choice of visits to the Centro de Interpretación del Misticismo or the Museo Santa Teresa; finishing with a visit to the Real Monasterio de Santo Tomás and the Museo de Arte Oriental.
May 15, Salamanca; Arévalo: Morning trip to Arévalo with a walking tour of the city. Afternoon exam in Salamanca.
May 16, Salamanca to Paris: Travel to Madrid where group will fly to Paris.
May 17-22, Paris: On site classes and tours of the Louvre, the Tuileries, Sainte-Chapel, Saint-Germain l’Auxerrois, Saint-Sulpice, Saint-Germain-des-Prés, Saint-Paul Saint Louis, the Basilica of Sacré-Coeur de Montmartre, the Palais-Royal, and Comédie-Française.
May 23, Versailles: Day trip to tour Versailles (concentrating especially on the chapel, the Hall of Mirrors, and the gardens) in the morning and Class session on Molière’s Tartuffe in the gardens of Versailles
May 26-28, Cambridge: Classes with tours of the college, visit to the Fitzwilliam museum, Cambridge river tour, and picnic on the punts.
May 29, Cambridge and Oxford: High tea in Grantchester. Afternoon bus to Oxford where students will have dinner at the Eagle and Child Pub.
May 30-31, Oxford: Classes with tours of the college, and a visit to Bodleian.
June 1, Oxford, London: Day trip to London with a morning visit to either Faraday museum, or Greenwich observatory. Afternoon visit to the Welcome Trust museum. Dinner in London and return to Oxford in the evening on the train.
June 2, Oxford: Final presentations in the morning. Dinner and wrap-up event at the Turf Tavern.
June 3, Oxford to London: Departure for Calgary or independent travel.

Post-field
June 17, Calgary: Final Papers due