

Tina Guo is a first-year medical student at the University of Calgary, Class of 2020, where she previously studied Biological Sciences in pursuit of a Bachelor of Science degree. Her passion towards health humanities was cultivated by her extracurricular activities during her first degree, when she was heavily involved with initiatives and projects that advocated for marginalized populations, particularly those who had experienced mental illness, homelessness, or domestic abuse. Currently, Tina serves as the Founder and Co-Executive Director of the university's Students Against Domestic Abuse Association. She also recently served as the Co-Chair of the Calgary branch of Outrun the Stigma, a national non-profit organization that raises funds for various organizations and agencies that provide mental health counselling and related services.
