UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY

2500 University Drive NW Calgary, AB T2N 1N4

Dr. Edward McCauley, President and Vice-Chancellor of the University of Calgary has struck an advisory committee Chaired by Interim Provost and Vice-President (Academic) Dr. Penny Werthner, inviting applications from outstanding leaders for the position of Dean, Haskayne School of Business, at the University of Calgary.

Located in Canada's most enterprising city, the traditional territory of the peoples of Treaty 7 and Region 3 of the Métis Nation of Alberta, the University of Calgary (UCalgary) is a global and innovative intellectual hub for teaching and learning, research and scholarship, and community engagement.

The Haskayne School of Business (HSB) was founded at the University of Calgary in 1967, has maintained AACSB accreditation since 1985, and was named in honour of Richard F. Haskayne, OC, AOE, FCA in 2002. Over the past 10 years, HSB has built an excellent reputation across the country by focusing on an increased impact on research, a 30% increase in faculty, a 250% increase in named professorships and chairs, 19 new faculty fellowships, a 185% increase in top journal publications, and 105% increase in endowment funds. In the fall of 2022, HSB opened Mathison Hall, a $90 million once-in-a-generation opportunity to provide a place for the Haskayne community to gather, connect and learn. The School has nearly 4,000 full- and part-time students enrolled in bachelor's, master's and doctorate programs, as well as over 1,000 executive education program participants, and has over 27,000 alumni in over 90 countries worldwide.

The HSB has nine academic areas: Accounting; Business Technology Management; Entrepreneurship and Innovation; Finance; Marketing; Operations and Supply Chain Management; Organizational Behaviour and Human Resources; Risk Management and Insurance; and Strategy and Global Management; and is home to numerous Centres of Excellence dedicated to advancing research and elevating education in areas central to today's complex business environment. The HSB has made significant strides in hiring elite researchers, and plays an important role in shaping the next generation of leaders in Canada's most enterprising city.

Reporting to the Provost and Vice-President (Academic), the new Dean of the Haskayne School of Business is the primary advocate and spokesperson, fundraiser, and connection to the community. They will be a distinguished leader who has the capacity to advance scholarly excellence and world-class research and is motivated to lead an internationally recognized research-based, student-focused center of excellence at the University of Calgary. As a bold strategic leader and champion of equity, diversity, inclusion and accessibility, the Dean will be responsible for the overall administration and operations of the HSB, providing leadership for academic activities, innovative learning opportunities, scholarship, community engagement, and fund development. The Dean will demonstrate a commitment to the student experience, enhance the direction of HSB by leading the Haskayne 2025 strategic plan, and uphold the School's vision and mission, and principles.

The Dean will engage and lead a unified team with a culture that promotes collaboration, extraordinary academic and research activities, and strengthen interdisciplinary partnerships with other faculties and university stakeholders. As a transparent and trustworthy decision maker, the Dean will inspire and cultivate relationships with students, faculty, staff, and alumni to sustain and enhance the reputation of HSB. Focusing on building new, and deepening existing relationships with business stakeholders, Indigenous and BIPOC peoples, and other internal and external communities will be instrumental to the Dean's, the School's, and the University's success.

With a clear commitment to EDIA, decolonization, and Indigenization, the Dean will promote a vision to the broader community to attract resources and secure funding for sustainability and growth. The Dean will work passionately and effectively to implement policies and practices that align with these objectives, while also adhering to the Principles for Responsible Management Education (PRME) initiative, which is intended to inspire and champion responsible management education, research and thought leadership globally.

The successful candidate will hold a PhD or professional graduate degree, or comparable terminal degree in business administration, and qualifications commensurate with an appointment with tenure at the rank of full professor. They will have deep connections in the business community and serve as a bridge between the school and industry. They will be a recognized scholar in a business-related discipline with demonstrated organizational leadership and administrative management skills. Candidates coming from post-secondary will have experience in a senior role as an academic leader including a Dean or higher, an Associate Dean, a Chair of a department or as a Director of an Institute or Centre, or an equivalent academic framework or institution. Candidates coming from industry or academia will have a proven capacity to advocate, build trust, influence, and collaborate. They will demonstrate success in support of academic productivity and building community partnerships. A track record in external funding successes and the ability to build strong relationships with the local, national and international communities, government, and alumni is essential.

The successful candidate will provide leadership in creating space for people who hold diverse perspectives, and will actively lead local implementation of university strategies including Indigenous (ii' taapoh'to'p), Sustainability, Global Engagement, Mental Health, as well as an emerging EDIA strategy. Building on the momentum of success at HSB, the next Dean will drive positive growth and change, inspiring faculty, students, staff, and community partners to ensure Haskayne is the business school of choice in Canada for the globally minded leaders of tomorrow.

The appointment as Dean, Haskayne School of Business is for a five-year period with the possibility of renewal. The successful candidate will be offered an academic position "With Tenure" at the rank of Professor.
