

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY

SUBJECT: Flexible Grading for Winter 2021 Term

On February 1, 2021 the Academic Planning and Priorities Committee approved the use of the CR grade option for one course completed during the Winter 2021 term as follows:

Undergraduate students:

- Students who receive a grade of C- and above in a single course can choose a CR option. A single course can be one of a 3-unit, 1.5-unit, 1-unit or .75-unit course. For the Faculty of Law, a single course will be defined by the Faculty; OR

Graduate students:

- Students who receive a grade of B- and above in a single course can choose a CR option. A single course can be one of a 3-unit, 1.5-unit, 1-unit or .75-unit course.

The Office of the Registrar will outline the procedure for students to follow. These procedures will be communicated to all students via UThis Week, the Faculty of Graduate Studies and will be posted on <https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/student-centre/grades>.

The following conditions will be followed for the CR option for Winter 2021:

- Undergraduate students may request a CR grade for a single course where the final grade is a C- and above. A single course can be one of a 3-unit, 1.5-unit, 1-unit or .75-unit course. OR
- Graduate students may request a CR grade for a single course where the final grade is a B- and above. A single course can be one of a 3-unit, 1.5-unit, 1-unit or .75-unit course.
- Once the request is made it cannot be reversed.
- May 14, 2021 is the deadline for students to request the CR option for a Winter 2021 term course.
- A course where the CR is applied will not count towards a student's GPA.
- D+, D and F grades will remain unchanged and will be used to calculate a student's GPA.
- Will apply to any course scheduled during the Winter 2021 term (regular, block week, non-standard).
- Any courses that are scheduled over both the fall and winter terms are exempt.