

BIOGRAPHY - Mark Herman, BA, MBA

Mark Herman grew up in Calgary and attended the University of Calgary earning a Bachelor of Arts in Economics. He then went on to earn an MBA from the University of Western Ontario. Mark has also completed the Directors Education Program from the Institute of Corporate Directors.

Mark retired in 2013 after a 27 year career in investment banking, most recently with Scotia Capital where he was responsible for business development, project execution in both financings and mergers and acquisitions, and management of Scotia Capital's Calgary Investment Banking group.

Mark is currently a member of the Senate of the University of Calgary having first been elected in 2013. He has chaired the Community Engagement Committee of the Senate for the last two years. Mark has also served as a community member of the Investment Committee of the University of Calgary's Board of Governors. Mark is a past board member and chair of the board of the Calgary Science Centre.