

BIOGRAPHY - Fauzia Lalani, P. Eng.

Fauzia Lalani is an accomplished and energetic business and community leader with a passion for education and youth initiatives.

Fauzia is currently a senior business leader working with Suncor Energy Inc. Prior to joining Suncor, she was Vice President in the Technology and Operations area at TELUS. She moved to TELUS, after being President and Chief Executive Officer of Aquila Canada, a Calgary-based Venture 100 energy company with more than $1 billion in assets and $600 million in annual revenues.

As a long-serving leader within Canada and the Calgary Community, Fauzia is active in numerous national and community organizations supporting Youth, Education, Health & Wellness, and Quality of Life enhancement. Her strong commitment to community and experience in strategic planning and finance have benefitted and continue to benefit numerous national and community organization boards. These include; the Calgary Stampede Foundation (Director), the Canada Revenue Agency (past Chair) and Workers Compensation Board (past Chair), as well as Director on the Sinneave Foundation, STARS Air Ambulance and the Calgary YMCA Boards.

Fauzia has been recognized with numerous awards including the 50 Key Women in Energy Award – Leadership Category and the Stevie International Business Award.