

BIOGRAPHY – Pam Krause, BA

Pam Krause is the President and CEO of the Calgary Sexual Health Centre (CSHC). She has been with the Agency since 2001, taking on the leadership role in 2004. Graduating from the University of Calgary with a BA in Political Science, Pam began her career in municipal and provincial politics.

An advocate and activist on issues related to women's equality and social justice, Pam has worked and volunteered in the Calgary non-profit community for the past 23 years. Her previous roles include work with the Elizabeth Fry Society, where she advanced the opening of the first half way house exclusively for women in Alberta.

Under Pam's leadership, the Calgary Sexual Health Centre has grown and today is the only non-profit organization in our community that provides comprehensive sexual health education programs and services to people across the lifespan.

CSHC is recognized as a leader for implementing innovative sexual health programs that have meaningful results for the populations they serve. In 2014, CSHC was recognized by Alberta Venture magazine as one of the 25 most Innovative organizations / companies in Alberta.

Pam's leadership has been recognized by being named a Global Television Woman of Vision, and she is a recipient of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medal for her years of community service. In 2017, Pam was named as one of 150 Calgary women who have impacted Calgary over the past 150 years by the YW Calgary She Who Dares initiative.

Pam has a wealth of experience in leadership, governance and social innovation and is a strong advocate in our community.
