(Institute of Maternal, Newborn and Child Health)
Canadian Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Scholarship (QES)
Young Leaders in International Development

POSITION DESCRIPTION
Title of Placement:	Communications Intern (HAY! Project)
Location:	Mbarara University of Science and Technology (MUST), Institute of Maternal, Newborn And Child Health (IMNCH), Healthy Adolescents and Young People (HAY!), Mbarara, Uganda
Department:	Office of the Director
Duration:	3 months minimum (90 days)
Expected Start Date:	May 2023. Position may open again for Fall 2023.
Project Description:	This internship opportunity is part of the Canadian Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Scholarship (QES) program, funded in part by the Community Foundations of Canada. It will be carried out in partnership with the University of Calgary and the Mbarara University of Science and Technology Institute of Maternal, Newborn And Child Health (IMNCH). The QES program engages a dynamic community of young global leaders across the world to create lasting impact both at home and abroad through cross-cultural exchanges encompassing international education, discovery and inquiry, and professional experiences. QES Interns will work with the Healthy Adolescents and Young People (HAY!) initiative team, under the supervision of the Institute leadership and Healthy Child Uganda (HCU) partners at Mbarara University of Science and Technology (MUST). HCU is a longstanding (since 2002) partnership between MUST and UCalgary. HCU has supported dozens of past field interns (including many Queen Elizabeth Scholars) from UCalgary and greatly values their contributions to its many activities supporting adolescent, maternal, newborn and child health. Our field team is experienced in hosting Canadian interns (nearly two decades), provides a supportive and educational learning environment, engaging UCalgary interns in meaningful and important projects of priority to community partners and institute needs. Currently, many HCU activities are focused on the HAY! initiative, a Global Affairs Canada-supported collaboration (2020-2025) between MUST, UCalgary and communities. The HAY! initiative aims to address health needs of young people aged 10-24, promote health, and improve services in rural southwest Uganda communities. Using a strengths-based, collective action approach, HAY! engages families, communities, health providers and young people to meet their needs, mainly related to sexual and reproductive health (such as family planning and gender-based violence) as well as other aspects of mental and physical wellbeing. The Intern is expected to commit at least 7 hours a day, five days a week (or 35 hours a week) to work with the Office of the Director on tasks described below.
