

In the student center, Group study program fees appear under Account Activity, with more details available in Account Inquiry. The term account summary shows the actual due date for the initial deposit, which is earlier than the final payment due date. Although the total program fees are divided into two or three separate charges, it is displayed as one lump sum on the student portal. Please refer to your student cost summary for the amounts and deadlines for each payment. Payments must be initiated before the deadlines on the student cost summary to avoid late charges.

Key Terms:

- GSP: Group Study Program
- Initial Deposit: The first payment required to secure your spot in the program.
- Final Payment: The remaining balance due after the initial and mid deposit.
