1. Our Strengths

① A top-notch Chinese teaching team

As a leader in Chinese teaching field at home and abroad, we have an excellent Chinese teaching team with rich experience in Chinese language teaching, Chinese culture teaching and online Chinese teaching. Whether it is online or in-person teaching, our teaching has been unanimously applauded by students.

② An internationally leading professional platform for Chinese teaching

“IChinese” (<http://ichinese.bnu.edu.cn>) is an online live-streamed teaching platform for Chinese Language and Culture College of Beijing Normal University. With its online live-streamed interactive mode, which is the most suitable for the language teaching, it provides you nearly the same learning effect as in the in-person class.

③ A highly efficient Chinese teaching model

Our teaching model incorporates the online live-streamed teaching, question-and-answer guidance, and language-partner assistance, so as to help you improve your Chinese proficiency and understand Chinese culture within a short time.

④ A practical and manifold curriculum

Our practical and effective curriculum can quickly improve your listening, speaking, reading and writing competence, and enhance your understanding about Chinese culture and national profiles. Fully considering the learners' time difference, study intensity, class time and class size, we design our curriculum multi-dimensionally and therefore provide a variety of options, including customized courses to meet individual needs.

2. Curriculum Features and Provision

① The curriculum covers comprehensive levels.

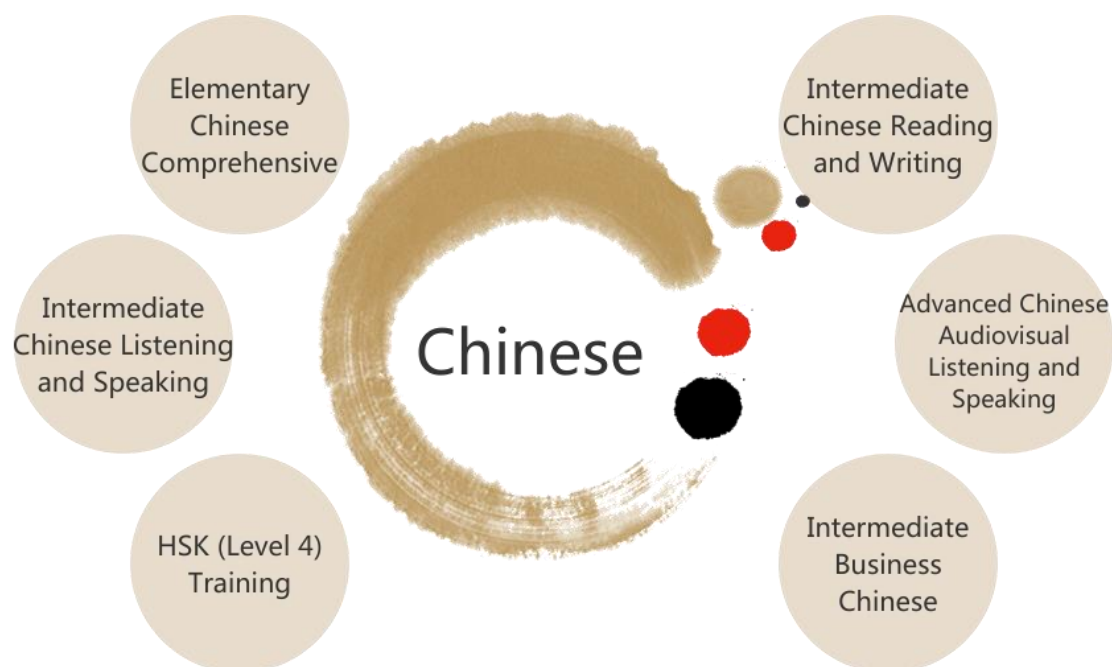

Whether you are a beginner or an advanced learner above HSK level 5, you can find a course suitable for you.

② The curriculum has manifold subjects.

Our curriculum includes basic Chinese language courses, vocational Chinese courses, courses on Chinese history and culture, HSK training courses and other varied courses.

Recent launched quality courses are: elementary Chinese comprehensive, intermediate Chinese reading and writing, intermediate Chinese listening and speaking, advanced Chinese audio-visual listening and speaking, HSK (level 4) training, intermediate business Chinese.

③The class size is moderate.

The class size of 6-10 learners does not only ensure every learner's participation in the class, but also facilitate the learners to make friends with each other and understand multiple cultures.

④The schedule is flexible for option.

Learners can freely make options among courses of varying intensities: 2-class- per-week experiencing courses, 6-class-per-week regular courses, 10-class-per-week intensive courses. Each course provides two options of duration: 4 weeks and 8 weeks.

We can also set up some particular classes to your needs and provide customized courses, such as some high-end quality one-to-one and one-to-two classes.
