(Institute of Maternal, Newborn and Child Health)
Canadian Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Scholarship (QES)
Young Leaders in International Development

POSITION DESCRIPTION
Title of Placement:	Communications Intern
Location:	Mbarara University of Science and Technology (MUST), Institute of Maternal, Newborn And Child Health (IMNCH), Mbarara, Uganda
Department:	Office of the Director
Duration:	3 months minimum (90 days)
Expected Start Date:	September 2022, January 2023 and May 2023
Project Description:	This internship opportunity is part of the Canadian Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Scholarship (QES) program funded in part by the Community Foundations of Canada. It will be carried out in partnership with the University of Calgary and the Mbarara University of Science and Technology Institute of Maternal, Newborn And Child Health (IMNCH). The QES program engages a dynamic community of young global leaders across the world to create lasting impact both at home and abroad through cross-cultural exchanges encompassing international education, discovery and inquiry, and professional experiences. QES Interns will work with the HAY! initiative team, under supervision of the Institute leadership and Healthy Child Uganda (HCU) partners at Mbarara University of Science and Technology (MUST). HCU is a longstanding (since 2002) partnership between MUST and UCalgary. HCU has supported dozens of past field interns (including many Queen Elizabeth Scholars) from UCalgary and greatly values their contributions to its many activities in support of adolescent, maternal, newborn and child health. Our field team is experienced hosting Canadian interns (nearly 2 decades), provides a supportive and educational learning environment, engaging UCalgary interns in meaningful and important projects of priority to community partners and institute needs. Currently, many HCU activities are focused towards the HAY! Initiative, a Global Affairs Canada-supported collaboration (2020-2025) between MUST, UCalgary and communities. The Healthy Adolescents and Young People (HAY!) Initiative aims to address health needs for young people aged 10-24 years old, promoting health promotion and improved services in communities in rural southwest Uganda. Using a strengths-based, collective action approach, HAY! engages families, communities, health providers and young people together to meet health needs especially related to sexual and reproductive health (such as family planning, gender-based violence) as well as other aspects of mental and physical wellbeing. The intern is expected to commit at least 7 hours a day, five days a week (or 35 hours a week) to work with the Office of the Director on tasks described below.
