Welcome to Convocation

Thank you for joining us for today's ceremony.

Masking is voluntary at UCalgary's convocation ceremonies. Choosing to wear a mask will keep you and those around you as safe as possible.

Please ensure all electronic devices are in silent mode and that, as you record these special moments, you do so with respect for your fellow guests, the graduates and the ceremony proceedings. We also ask that you remain seated for the duration of the ceremony to ensure all graduates and their guests have the same experience as they cross the stage.

The hashtag for convocation is #ucalgarygrad.

You can share the link ucalgary.ca/convocation/live with anyone who could not attend but may want to watch a livestream of the event.

After the ceremony, you can meet your graduate on the upper level of the gymnasium and make your way outdoors to some of the beautiful and fun locations around campus ideal for family and group portraits. These include the University of Calgary sign next to the arch, green spaces around the Olympic Oval and TFDL Quad, the Kinesiology dinosaur, the Olympic Arch and the Spire.

Please enjoy the celebration!

We acknowledge the traditional territories of the people of the Treaty 7 region in Southern Alberta, which includes the Blackfoot Confederacy (comprising the Siksika, Piikani, and Kainai First Nations), as well as the Tsuut’ina First Nation, and the Stoney Nakoda (including the Chiniki, Bearspaw, and Wesley First Nations). The City of Calgary is also home to the Métis Nation of Alberta, Region III. The University of Calgary is situated on land adjacent to where the Bow River meets the Elbow River, and the traditional Blackfoot name of this place is “Moh’kins’tsis,” which we now call the City of Calgary.

Greetings from the Chancellor

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations on your convocation! This is an exciting and important milestone for each of you, marking a significant step in your educational and personal journeys that do not end here. Your studies at the University of Calgary have prepared you for what lies ahead. Think of it as a beginning. A commencement, rather than an end. Whether you are moving on to further academic pursuits or launching your career, today marks a new beginning and brings with it many possibilities.

As a member of the Class of 2022, your time at UCalgary was fractured into two parts — a before and an after. What started as one paradigm, marked by personal connections in classes and extracurricular activities, became another as the COVID-19 pandemic took hold in March 2020. Your classes and other activities alternated between taking place online — or in person. Each of you had to adapt on a daily basis.

And, while the obstacles presented by the pandemic might have seemed insurmountable as they were unfolding, the world of tomorrow is one of opportunity. Opportunity that you will seize and shape. As a society, we must push boundaries to find solutions to the great global challenges we face, including geopolitical threats, economic and racial inequality, climate change, and food security. Each of you will play a part in charting this new future.

As you move on to wherever life may take you, remind yourself of the perseverance it took to get here today. That strength will be carried with you forever, ready to be drawn upon when you are challenged and when you are facing the unknown. And please remember — do not be constrained by the letters of your degree. Your education has given you the gift of knowledge, a gift that can be transferred across disciplines.

This is a time to celebrate! It is also a time for optimism and hope. And it is your moment.

You are an extraordinary class of graduates, and we are honoured to officially welcome you to our University of Calgary alumni family. You are among Canada’s best and brightest, and we wish you the best of success as you embark on new adventures. Keep learning, keep growing, invest in your future and know you are capable of anything.

Deborah Yedlin, BA, MBA, ICD.D
Chancellor

Graduand or Graduate?
What is the difference?

Throughout this program, we use the words graduand and graduate. A graduand is someone who is about to graduate. A graduate is someone who has already done so. Today our students will begin the convocation ceremony as graduands and conclude it as graduates. We are so proud of them all!
Greetings from the President

Dear Graduates,

Today, I join the rest of the University of Calgary community in celebrating you. I am so proud of you for reaching this important milestone in life. It is time to take your place amongst the family of over 200,000 UCalgary alumni who share your passion for knowledge, growth and discovery. You will soon be proud alumni from this campus that has cultivated influential political figures, Olympic medallists, celebrated research breakthroughs, electrifying entrepreneurs and renowned thought leaders.

Take some time to savour this moment of achievement, reflect on your university journey and how you got here. Through each semester of classes, exams and research, there were memorable moments when a professor sparked your curiosity, when the curriculum widened your worldview, when you competed in student athletics, when you contributed to original research, and grew a network of friends who believed in you. These memories will stay with you for life, and they are an integral part of the university experience. Over the past years, these experiences have helped shape the foundation of who you are today. The person you are today is different in a thousand ways, because you have challenged your intellect, you have discovered your passions, you have uncovered your strengths, and you have overcome obstacles to achieve your goals.

Getting to Convocation has required sustained diligence, patience and creativity, and I applaud you all for succeeding. Convocation isn’t a finish line. You’re just getting started, and I am so proud to watch you all taking off together from this excellent starting line. In 2022, there is no new normal, there is only continuous change, and I know that your UCalgary education has prepared you to face the roads that lie ahead. At the University of Calgary, we don’t wait for change. We drive change. You have all the tools to help shape the world into the future that you want, so get involved, get your hands dirty, shrug off labels and engage with your community. Start something.

Congratulations to the Class of 2022!

Dr. Edward McCauley, PhD, FRSC
President and Vice-Chancellor

Ceremonial Traditions

Our Tartan

The University of Calgary’s tartan design is reminiscent of the MacLeod tartans and incorporates the university colours of red and gold. The design was created by James Odell, BEd’76, BFA’83 and was officially recognized by the Scottish Tartans Society in 2001.

University of Calgary Mace

Our mace is representative of the authority that rests with the Crown. At the university, the authority of the Crown for the granting of degrees is vested in the Chancellor.

The mace bearer brandishes the mace to signify the arrival and departure of the Chancellor. The mace is placed in front of the Chancellor for the duration of the ceremony.

The University of Calgary mace was a gift from Chancellor Emerita Dr. Muriel Kovitz and Dr. David Kovitz, and was used for the first time at the 1979 November Convocation ceremony. Our mace was crafted by Garrard and Company of London, England — the jewelers responsible for the creation of the crown of the Prince of Wales, the insignia of the British orders and decorations, and the insignia and badges of the Order of Canada. It was designed by Alec Styles and is made of silver.

Mace Table

In 1991, a white oak table made by Calgary craftsman John Morel was given to the University of Calgary by Chancellor Emeritus Dr. James Palmer and Mrs. Barbara Palmer to hold our ceremonial mace.

Coat of Arms

Granted to the university in 1966, the formal coat of arms incorporates the university colours of red and gold. Red symbolizes the North West Mounted Police (NWMP), and gold reflects both grain and sunshine — staples of Alberta. Featured in the top section of the shield is the wild rose of Alberta, flanked by two books that signify learning. Separating the sections is an arch, symbolic of Calgary’s famous Chinook arch. The lower section reflects the city’s connection to Lieutenant Colonel James F. MacLeod of the NWMP, who is credited with naming Calgary after Calgary Bay on the Isle of Mull in Western Scotland. The crossed staves and black bull’s head are reminiscent of the MacLeod family crest. Under the shield is the escrol bearing our Gaelic motto: mo shùile togam suas, which translates to ‘I will lift up my eyes.’

The University of Calgary Honour Song

The Honour Song was gifted to the University of Calgary by Elder Rod Hunter in 2018 to be used as part of the university’s Indigenous Strategy, ii’ taa’poh’to’p, where we commit to shared ethical space, transformation and ongoing renewal. The Honour Song is in the traditional Stoney Nakoda style. Elder Hunter states that most of his songs come to him in his dreams, including this one. He woke up singing the university Honour Song. As implied by the name, it is meant to highlight a spiritual connection to all of creation/Creator and bring honour, respect and tribute to a person, ceremony or an event.
Honouring Exceptional Individuals

Honorary Degrees

The honorary degree is the University of Calgary’s highest academic honour and is bestowed upon individuals whose notable achievements and community service merit recognition. Honorary degree recipients provide inspiration and leadership to the graduating class, the university and the community.

The Order of the University of Calgary

The Order of the University of Calgary honours individuals who have made distinguished and exemplary contributions to the university above and beyond the requirements of their position. The award may be conferred upon any current or former member of the university community; students, faculty, staff, alumni and volunteers are all eligible.

Distinguished Graduate

Graduands are invited to take the Graduates’ Pledge, stating their commitment as alumni to learning, community and representing the university. Leading the pledge is a distinguished graduate — a member of the University of Calgary family noted for their success in living up to our principles.

Degrees Granted

Types of Degrees

The University of Calgary grants bachelor, master and doctoral degrees. A bachelor’s degree is an undergraduate degree that typically takes four to five years to complete. A master’s degree is a graduate level degree requiring advanced knowledge or training in a particular field of study. A doctoral degree is the highest level of study, where a student completes a dissertation under the supervision of a professor. The focus is on conducting original research in a specialized subject.

Undergraduate Degrees with Honours

Degrees with Honours are awarded in two classes — Honours, and First Class Honours — to students in the faculties of Arts, Haskayne School of Business, Kinesiology, Cumming School of Medicine, and Science. These degrees follow a concentrated course of study in a specialized field. First Class Honours is awarded to students who have obtained a distinctive grade point average as defined by their faculty.

Undergraduate Degrees with Distinction

At the discretion of a faculty, the notation “With Distinction” is inscribed on the permanent record and degree parchment of graduates (except those with an Honours or graduate degree) who have obtained a distinctive grade point average as defined by the faculty.

Academic Regalia

Our students crossing the stage today are wearing hoods trimmed in different colours. These identify the specific academic degree that each graduate has earned. The hood itself is lined with a chevron in the university’s school colours of red and gold.

Dr. Verna Yiu

Professor and leader in health care and medicine

Dr. Verna Yiu, MD, is one of Canada’s most respected health-care leaders. She served as president and CEO of Alberta Health Services (AHS) from 2016 to 2022. Over the past six years, she has transformed the way care is delivered to Albertans by optimizing integration of care, improving efficiencies and launching the province-wide clinical information system called Connect Care.

She successfully led AHS in its response to one of the worst public health crises we will ever know in our lifetime during the COVID-19 pandemic and gained the confidence of the more than 100,000 employees and physicians in the organization.

Dr. Yiu has spent more than two decades in leadership roles in academia and government, including as the first female dean (interim) of the Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry at the University of Alberta.

She has won numerous awards including being named the Global Woman of Vision in 2019 and being ranked second on the Medical Post’s 2021 Power List of physicians in Canada, behind only Dr. Theresa Tam, MD, Canada’s Chief Public Health Officer.

Dr. Yiu is a professor of pediatrics in the Division of Pediatric Nephrology at the U of A and continues to work on the front lines, providing care to young patients and their families at the Stollery Children’s Hospital in Edmonton.
The Dean of the Cumming School of Medicine invites all candidates for the degree to rise and recite the Hippocratic Oath:

"Now being admitted to the profession of medicine, I solemnly pledge to consecrate my life to the service of humanity. I will give respect and gratitude to my deserving teachers and in my turn I will teach and I will study. I will practice medicine with conscience and dignity. The health and life of my patient will be my first consideration. I will hold in confidence all that my patient confides in me. I will maintain the honor and the noble traditions of the medical profession. I will not permit consideration of race, religion, nationality, ideology, or social standing to intervene between my duty and my patient. I will maintain the utmost respect for human life. Even under threat, I will not use my knowledge contrary to the laws of humanity. These promises I make freely and upon my honor."

HONORARY DEGREE
Chantal St-Cyr Hébert
Journalist, author and political commentator

Journalist, author and political commentator Chantal St-Cyr Hébert is one of the most renowned and respected figures in Canadian media. Her informed and thoughtful analysis of current events and issues captures the attention of people across the county as they consider the implications of the events of the day.

After graduating from Glendon College at York University, Hébert launched her career in the newsroom of Radio-Canada in Toronto. She went on to cover provincial and then federal politics with her work appearing in print, on television and on the radio for nearly every major news outlet in the country.

She is now a contributing columnist for the Toronto Star and L’actualité and is a frequent guest on CBC’s The National. She has served as bureau chief on Parliament Hill for Le Devoir and La Presse and is the author of two books on significant events in Canadian politics.

She was awarded the Charles Lynch Award for reporting with the Canadian Parliamentary Press Gallery, has been named an Officer of the Order of Canada, is a Senior Fellow of Massey College at the University of Toronto, and is the recipient of honorary degrees from 11 Canadian universities.

Hébert’s dedication to providing Canadians with balanced, timely reporting — and her ability to do so fluently in both official languages — has elevated the level of discourse in Canada and left an indelible mark in the history of media and politics in this country.

CONVOCATION SPEAKER

Peter Tertzakian

Professor, author and energy industry expert

Peter Tertzakian is an adjunct professor at the Haskayne School of Business, the managing director of ARC Financial and deputy director of the ARC Energy Research Institute.

A respected public speaker, podcaster, blogger and author, Tertzakian has devoted his career to energy, first as a geophysicist, then as an economist and investment strategist. He has written two bestsellers — A Thousand Barrels a Second and The End of Energy Obesity — and, in 2020, launched his new project, energyphile.org, and book, The Investor Visit and Other Stories: Disruption, Denial and Transition in the Energy Business. Passionate about studying how society evolves its energy use and applying lessons of the past to today’s strategic business issues, Tertzakian created Energyphile to encourage people to think about the energy business in a whole new way.

In 2015, Tertzakian was seconded to the four-person Royalty Review Panel for the province of Alberta — the world’s eighth largest producer of oil and gas — where he led the redesign of the fiscal policy. In 2016, he was inducted into the Alberta Petroleum Hall of Fame and, in 2021, he joined the board of Contemporary Calgary and the Institute of Sustainable Finance Advisory Board.

He has an undergraduate degree in geophysics from the University of Alberta, a graduate degree in econometrics from the University of Southampton, U.K., and a Master of Science in management of technology from the Sloan School of Management at MIT.

CONVOCATION SPEAKER

Dr. Richard Sigurdson
Dean of the University of Calgary Faculty of Arts

Dr. Richard Sigurdson, PhD, has served as the dean of the University of Calgary’s Faculty of Arts since 2012. He has spent 25 years in academic and administrative roles in universities across Canada. An active volunteer in the Calgary community, he has served on boards and commissions, including as former vice-chair of the Calgary Police Commission.

Dr. Sigurdson has written dozens of peer-reviewed papers, contributed to several books, and is the author of Jacob Burckhardt’s Social and Political Thought (U of T Press, 2004). He remains active as a political theorist with a recent research focus on the politics of nationalism, specifically on national identity and how it affects public policies on immigration in different countries.

ORDER OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY

Lana Wells
Educator, advocate and agent of change

Lana Wells, BSW’96, MSW’97, is an internationally recognized expert on domestic violence prevention, whose ability to work across disciplines, translate knowledge into action and advocate for change has made her an invaluable contributor to our community.

As an associate professor in the Faculty of Social Work and the Brenda Strafford Chair in the Prevention of Domestic Violence, Wells founded and leads a primary prevention research hub called Shift: The Project to End Domestic Violence. She supervises graduate students in the Faculty of Social Work and The School of Public Policy, where she is also a research fellow.

Wells earned the Alberta Inspiration Award in Leadership in Family Violence, was recognized as a PEAK scholar from UCalgary, received the John Hutton Memorial Award for Social Action/Policy from the Alberta College of Social Workers, and was honoured by YW Calgary’s She Who Dares 150 Women Project.

In 2017, she received the UCalgary Teaching Award for Curriculum Development for the co-creation of the Advancing Healthy and Socially Just Schools and Communities graduate certificate program.

Wells has advised, consulted for or partnered with all orders of government in Canada and hundreds of not-for-profit organizations on advancing primary prevention efforts to stop violence before it starts. She has also been engaged by the UN and contributed to a resolution for the Human Rights Council on engaging men and boys in preventing and addressing violence against women.

CONVOCAITION SPEAKER
Naheed Nenshi

Former mayor of the City of Calgary

Naheed K. Nenshi, A’paistootsiiipsii to the Blackfoot Confederacy and Iliya to the Tsuut’ina Nation, served as Calgary’s mayor for three terms between 2010 and 2021. During his time, Calgary became one of the greatest cities in the world, named as the best city in which to live in the Western Hemisphere.

Nenshi, BComm’93, was awarded the World Mayor Prize as the best mayor in the world in 2014 by The City Mayors Foundation. He also has received the Humanitarian Award from the Canadian Psychological Association for his contribution to community mental health. Maclean’s magazine once called him the second-most influential person in Canada after the prime minister, much to the amusement of his mother.

Prior to his election, Nenshi served as Canada’s first tenured professor of nonprofit management at the Bissett School of Business at Mount Royal University. He was a management consultant for McKinsey & Company and ran his own firm, The Ascend Group.

Nenshi is a graduate of the University of Calgary, where he served as president of the Students’ Union, and he holds a Master of Public Policy degree from the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University, where he studied as a Kennedy Fellow. He is a proud first-generation Canadian of Indian ancestry, whose parents immigrated from Tanzania. His family and his Ismaili Muslim faith instilled in him the ethic of seva — service to the community — something he tries to live every day.

Eva Friesen
Non-profit leader and community advocate

As president and CEO of Calgary Foundation, Eva Friesen, MBA’00, has harnessed the power of philanthropy to connect communities, champion causes and build our city. Since 2005, her team has grown the Foundation’s endowment to more than $1 billion.

In 2015 — for the Foundation’s 60th anniversary — Friesen oversaw a strategic review that established the organization’s priorities, focusing it on promoting creativity and sustainability; empowering Calgary’s vulnerable populations; strengthening the city’s relationship with Indigenous populations; and prioritizing mental health for Calgarians.

A trailblazer, Friesen served as the first female president of Rotary Club Downtown Calgary in 2013. She has also served on the boards of directors for the Calgary Chamber of Commerce and the Calgary Police Commission. Prior to joining Calgary Foundation, she was the CEO of the Calgary Health Trust and spent more than 20 years with the YWCA as CEO in Calgary, Yellowknife and Winnipeg.

She is an alumna of the Haskayne School of Business and received the school’s MAX Award in 2011. In 2017, she was awarded with an honorary Business Administration Diploma from Bow Valley College.

Throughout her career, Friesen’s commitment to equity, diversity, inclusion, reconciliation and community-building has established her as a model leader and advocate, and a vital member of the Calgary community.

Dr. Vernon Jones
Visionary leader, community builder and industry expert

During more than four decades at the University of Calgary, Dr. Vernon Jones, PhD, has made significant contributions to our community as a professor, community collaborator, involved leader and industry expert. Through his advocacy and guidance, he has helped grow the Haskayne School of Business (HSB) and UCalgary’s reputation internationally.

Dr. Jones has contributed to many key events throughout the history of the HSB, including the expansion of the BComm program by more than 50% in 1990, along with the completion of the fourth floor of Scurfield Hall; the founding of the Executive MBA program in 1995; and establishing the Jarislowsky Fellowship program recognizing outstanding community leaders in Calgary.

He has held nearly every administrative position within the HSB, including Area Chair, Assistant Dean (Undergraduate), Associate Dean (External), Associate Dean (Graduate Programs), Associate Dean (Academic), Senior Associate Dean, Vice-Dean, Interim Dean, Director of the Executive MBA program, and Director of the Centre for International Management.

In addition, Dr. Jones has worked on many UCalgary committees and advisory councils, including the General Faculties Council, Faculty of Graduate Studies Council and the University Senate. He has served as an expert reviewer on business programs for several universities and provincial authorities, including Campus Alberta. Dr. Jones has also written early histories of the Haskayne School of Business and the Banff School of Advanced Management. He was previously a Canada Council Doctoral Fellow.
