

Suvra Saha completed her Bachelor of Science in Industrial and Production Engineering from Bangladesh University of Engineering & Technology in 2008. She has worked for a leading automotive battery manufacturing company in Bangladesh as a production planner and also took active part in SAP ERP software implementation. Suvra completed her Master of Science from University of Calgary in Manufacturing Engineering in 2012. Currently she is working for Suncor Energy as a Master Data Performance Analyst in the Reliability Integration group.